by Albanian Media

April 8, 2023

According to a report by Ora News on April 6, 2023, 10 illegal immigrants trying to cross the Sarandë border (Albania to Greece) were arrested.

According to this news, the police arrested the Albanian driver of a van near the border while he was hiding 10 illegal immigrants in his vehicle. These immigrants were trying to go to Greece illegally from Albania. They were stopped and searched at a place called Qafe Bote near the border point. Two of these foreigners were Iranians who are said to have been former members of the Mujahedin-e Khalq (MEK).

According to the information obtained, more than 200 people are living in the exit unit of the closed and remote MEK camp in Albania, and they have been promised to be sent to Europe if they do not leave the camp now.

MEK, no friend of democracy in Iran: Canadian academics

by Nejat Bloggers

April 13, 2023

Paid hefty fees by the Mujahedin-e Khalq, lobbyists of the group have been actively working to advocate its cause as "a democratic alternative" to the Islamic Republic. The cult-like MEK with a long background of violence and terror is supported by a number of politicians in the United States, Saudi Arabia, Israel, and Canada.

According to the Hill Times, Academics and analysts say Canadian politicians backing democracy in Iran should stop attending events organized by a controversial group that Canada once listed as a terrorist organization that is neither "legitimate nor democratic."

The person in question is Mr. Ehsan Bidi, who is a former member of the MEK and has been separated from this organization for about a decade and is a refugee in your country. He is registered as a refugee with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) in your country and has legitimate rights of a refugee recognized by the UN. The question of the Albanians: When will justice come to the Kareç Camp?

by Albania Media And Blogs

May 8, 2023

on St. George's Day, the ASILA association distributed brochures to the residents of "May 5" street. The brochures had such a content that the people who read them understood that many injustices were committed against the 6 Iranians imprisoned in the Kareç camp and are still being committed in the Mujahideen camps.

Injustices such as: closing them due to the interests of the Mujahedin Khalq group, leaving their families, leaving the Albanian territory for Iran where they risk being killed or even leaving them from the bosoms of the families created by them in Europe.

The CEO of Nejat Society, Ebrahim Khodabandeh, sent a message to the respected Albanian statesmen and made it available to the Albanian authorities and media through the Association for the Support of Iranians Living in Albania (ASILA), for information and possibly appropriate measures.

 "On behalf of the families of the members of the MEK and on behalf of the former members of this organization in Albania and abroad, I request that the Albanian statesmen and security bodies do not vent their grudge against the refugees who are in short supply everywhere. And don't cause them more trouble and allow them to have a peaceful and comfortable life after years of trouble in the Rajavi Cult."

MEK: terrorists who jail dissidents

The Iran that the West likes is called MEK: terrorists who jail dissidents

by Western Bloggers

May 21, 2023

The Mujahedin-e Khalq terrorist group, known as MEK, which was listed as a terrorist organization from 1997 to 2012 and has a criminal record of killing 17,000 people, is now presented as a purely political group and engaged in human rights advocacy from anti-Iranian satellite channels, such as Iran International.

This cult has created horrific relationships and situations both at home and abroad. Violence perpetrated against its own members is an important issue which perhaps has not been sufficiently addressed.
