the basic human rights of all different communities in Albania".

while passing through the park. The audience wanted to know the Iranian community living in Albania who include some defectors of the Mujahedin-e Khalq (MEK).

Concluding Statement of The great gathering of the Albanian Nejat Society

November 29, 2023

Mojahedin-e Khalq Organization (MEK, MKO) led by Massoud and Maryam Rajavi, while they were expelled from Iraq and no other country was willing to receive them, were accepted in Albania for humanitarian reasons about 7 years ago.

But this organization, according to the repeated statements of various responsible officials in the Albanian government, behaved beyond the agreements made and violated the laws of the Republic of Albania, and in an isolated and remote camp, they violated the most basic human rights of the members, that is, the right to communicate with the outside world. especially with the family.

The Albanian public opinion should be informed about Rajavi's modern slavery

November 26, 2023

Masoomah Rezaei has been deprived of seeing her son for many years. His son, Saeed Farajullah Hosseini, was captured by Iraqi forces during the Iran-Iraq war and was transferred from the camp of Iranian prisoners of war in Iraq to the headquarters of Mujahedin-e Khalq (MEK), under a collusion between Massoud Rajavi and Saddam Hussein.

Saeed Hosseini's family was unaware of his condition for two years until they were informed that Saeed was in the MEK camp. Since then, the Hosseini family has not been allowed to meet their child.

The Albanian News 24 TV Channel interviews Ali Zamani

November 13, 2023

Ali Asghar Zamani is a former member of the Mujahedin-e Khalq Organization and the current member of the Nejat Society office in Albania called Nejat Albania.

He managed to escape the group camp on Thursday, September 14th, 2023.

Zamani joined the MEK in 2003, together with his family –his wife, son and daughter—because the MEK agents had promised him to transfer them from Iraq to Europe and help them find a good job and a happy life there.

But soon he realized that he was deceived; the MEK did not provide them any possibility to go to Europe and get asylum there. Instead, all the family were separated from each other. They could hardly ever see each other.

The Albanian Balkan Web also published a report on the interview.

How the Cult of Rajavi works according to Steven Hassan

November 4, 2023

If you think that cults are merely traps for gullible and weak-minded people, Steven Hassan would urge you to reconsider.

The mind control expert is the author of Combating Cult Mind Control: The Guide to Protection, Rescue and Recovery from Destructive Cults. He's also a former member of the Sun Myung Moon's Unification Church cult.

Based on Hassan's lived experience and research, a destructive cult is dishonest from the beginning. Destructive cults always lie to new members about their true intentions, according to Hassan. This is a very repeated pattern in the stories of defectors of the Mujahedin-e Khalq (MEK/ Cult of Rajavi).

Stockholm and Koln prosecutors should take action for MEK children, ex-member

November 15, 2023

Hanif Heidarnejad, former member of the MEK has focused on the cases of children of the group who were smuggled to Europe and North America under the order of the group's leader Massoud Rajavi.

Atefeh Sebdani is one of those children who published her autobiography a few months ago. The book was welcome among Swedish public opinion. As a journalist, Heidarnejad has published a review on the book raising the case of children who were systematically abused in the Rajavi's ruling system as a legal case in Sweden and Germany.

Why MEK separated children from families

November 22, 2023

After the defeat of Operation Forough Javidan (aka the Eternal Light and/or Mersad) (August 3-7, 1988), Massoud Rajavi, who was in charge of the operation, instead of accepting responsibility and responding to his erroneous analyses, held a series of meetings for the failure of the operation in the spring and summer of 1989, in which he laid the blame on the warriors of the so called "National Liberation Army" and members of the Mujahedin-e Khalq (MEK/MKO).

His point was that "you", the warriors, thought of your spouses, instead of fighting the enemy with all "your" might. Even if you did not have a spouse, you were thinking of your imaginary spouse. Therefore, you did not give your whole existence to me. The cause of that failure is you! And solution?! "Eternal divorce of men and women"; both in practice and in mind!"

UNESCO researcher: MEK does not have widespread public backing in Iran

November 1, 2023

While the Mujahedin-e Khalq (MEK) claims that its so-called “resistance units” are active all over Iran to push the overthrow of the Iranian government, independent researchers and journalists have always stated that the group lacks public support in Iran.
