CRITICS OF RAJAVI CULT; A DEFECTOR AFTER 35 YEARS, A CHILD SOLDIER AND A MOTHER

Mazda Parsi, Nejat Society, January 19 2022:

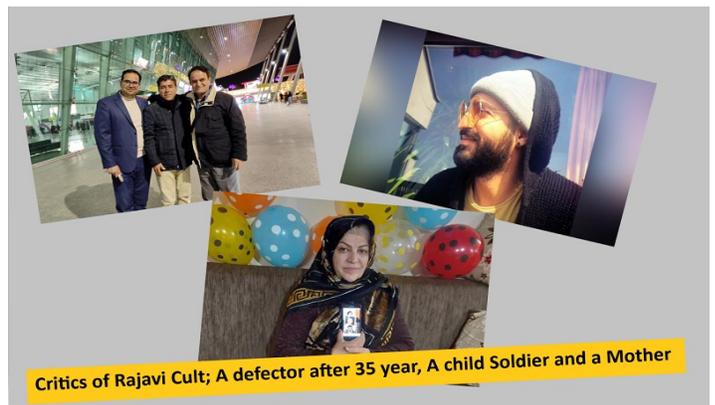

Mazda Parsi for Nejat Society writes about the MEK's constant and futile habit of labelling all its critics as 'agents of the Intelligence Ministry of Iran'.

Parsi identifies three main groups which the MEK regards as enemies: former members, families of members and the child soldiers made to join MEK's army in Iraq.

The common characteristics linking these groups is their scathing criticism of the MEK and revelations of horrendous Nejat Society in Iran to attack as agents.

The simple reason is that these organisations abuses and crimes. The MEK also singles out ASILA in Albania and effectively and persistently help and support all those groups.

DOUBLE STANDARDS ON MEK TERRORISM

Jack Turner interviews Dr. Hanieh Tarkian , Geopolitica,

January 06 2022

Geopolitica published an interview Jack Turner made with Dr Haniyeh Tarkian, an Italian Islamic-Studies researcher

and geopolitical analyst, about different aspects of the MEK's activities. Interestingly, the conversation continually returned to the issue of western double standards and hypocrisy in relation to the MEK over every issue.

CHANGES IN ALBANIA ; GJERGJI THANASI TOLD FAMILIES

ASILA and Nejat, January 23 2022

BY Hassan Heyrani

In a joint broadcast between ASILA in Albania and Nejat Society in Iran, Albanian journalist Gjergji Thanasi told families of the entrapped MEK members that things are changing for the better. According to the Albanians there is now an alternative for the inmates, to have a normal life in Tirana; Thanasi stressed that new legislation allows them to find a job. He said everyone should work together to help the MEK members as the alternative could be that they die of COVID 19 due to negligence.

Collaboration with Azadi TV, money laundering and financing Maryam Rajavi's banquets

2022/01/17

Hamed Sarrafpour, wrote about MEK Money Laundering after Maryam Rajavi announced the "week of financial support", a week when members are supposed to go all out to collect financial support for her cult.

Every year she does this so that she can claim that the MEK is financed through people's money.

Sarrafpour exposes the history of money laundry by the MEK from the deceptive Iran Aid bogus charity to the 3 tons of gold and food for oil, etc to the payments made to John Bolton, the Vox Party, and more.

He also publishes the amount of money Maryam spends on makeup and shoes and decoration for her meetings and compares this with the situation of ordinary members - referring to modern slavery to explain why the money does not reach the members.

Parviz Heydarian, former MEK member, returns home

2022/01/22

Ex members broadcast a touching video on YouTube of former MEK member Parviz Heydarian saying farewell to his friends as he returns to Iran from Albania. Heydarian was supported by the recently established

ASILA association. The film shows Heydarian with other former members, who all look happy, healthy and relaxed in their new lives. The MEK have been on overdrive to denounce them all as agents of the Iranian regime. The reality is that both ASILA in Albania and Nejat Society in Iran are legally registered in their respective countries where they pay taxes and obey the laws. Unlike the MEK which has never registered anywhere, does not pay any taxes and certainly does not obey any laws.

FAMILIES, NEMESIS OF RAJAVI

Atefeh Nadalian, Nejat Society, January 05 2022

Atefeh Nadalian, human rights lawyer, writing for Nejat Society reveals that the MEK's sensitivity toward families has become worse in recent times.

The MEK has tried to depict the families as dangerous agents of the Iranian regime.

But this has backfired as most observers and analysts have realised that the MEK's main enemy are elderly parents and siblings of the entrapped members languishing in Camp Ashraf 3.

MEK CHILD SOLDIERS HIGHLIGHTED IN BRITISH GOV. DOCUMENTS

Nejat Society, January 14, 2022:

Nejat Society reveals that the MEK's policy of recruiting child soldiers has been known about in western political circles for some time. In a report on Iran published by the UK Home Office Border and Immigration Agency, it is stated: "According to the Child Soldiers Global Report 2004 'The MeK reportedly recruited members from the USA, Europe and Iraqi prisoner of war camps and jails.

Children were said to be among MeK members in Ashraf camp, including 17-year-old Majid Amini who 'was recruited to join the MeK in Tehran with promises of completing two school grades in one year and gaining a place in college', according to his parents. There were reports that the MeK recruited children from Sweden."

DECEPTIVE RECRUITMENT IN ALBANIA

Anne Khodabandeh, Iran Interlink, January 10 2022

Anne Khodabandeh in Iran-Interlink exposes the MEK's deceptive recruitment of vulnerable Iranian asylum seekers arriving in Albania. The MEK has imposed its personnel on the police by offering to identify the Iranians among the refugees.

Once recruited, they are taken to MEK camps and detained there as modern slaves. According to Khodabandeh, this practice of deceptively exploiting Iranian refugees has been going on for decades. This time, however, the Albanian authorities have a duty to detect and prevent it rather than facilitate it.

KIDNAPPED POW IN ALBANIA – HIS WIFE ASKS FOR ACCESS

Nejat Society, Tehran, January 25 2022

Nejat Society published the story of Mahvash Jahanbanian whose husband Ali Ebrahimi was taken as a PoW during the Iran-Iraq while serving as an officer in the Iranian army. In spite of being registered with the ICRC, Ebrahimi's letters stopped in 1989 and his wife had no news of him until an anonymous note revealed he was with the MEK. After the fall of Saddam Hussein in 2003 Jahanbanian, with other families, visited Camp

Ashraf and Camp Liberty four times to find her husband. They had rocks thrown at them. Later, former MEK members who knew him told her that he refused to comply with MEK demands that he denounce his wife as an agent of Iranian Intelligence and was punished for this.

MANEZ MUJAHEDIN REPEAT CLANDESTINE TRAFFICKING IN GREECE

Gjergji Thanasi, Gazeta Impakt, Tirana, Albania, January 31 2022

Gjergji Thanasi wrote about the trafficking activities of MEK being revealed in Greece which are a repeat of the drug and human trafficking which led to the arrest of two high ranking members in Albania.

Thanasi wrote that Greek police and journalists have raised concerns about the long term activities of Mehdi Mazloomi and Bahman Rahimi, both MEK members, in Greece.

The fear is that MEK is causing problems in the EU and in NATO countries. Thanasi suggests that the US embassy should help Albania to end the Rajavi cult.

About Nejat Society

Nejat Society consists of some former members of the Iranian Mojahedin-e Khalq Organization (MEK, MKO, Rajavi cult) and the families of the present members seeking to contact their loved ones.

Some of the aims of Nejat Society are:

To inform as widely as possible about the real cultic nature of the MEK and their deception techniques to recruit young and unaware individuals.

To act as a pressure group to persuade the cult leaders to respect the basic rights of the members according to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other international conventions.

To reconcile and reunite people who leave the MEK with their families, by mutual consent, and to involve established Iranians in helping these vulnerable people

Nejat Society, Tehran, Iran

FROM NEJAT TO ASILA ON BEHALF OF FAMILIES

Nejat Society, January 18 2022

A Letter was sent from Nejat Society CEO Ebrahim Khodabandeh to the ASILA President Mr. Dashamir Mersuli, outlining the problem that families have in gaining visas to visit Albania and seek out contact with their loved ones incarcerated in camp Ashraf 3 in Manez as modern slaves.

The letter asks ASILA to grant the human rights petition the authorities of MEK members and to ignore Maryam Rajavi's deceptive lies and their families.
